Honorifics Explained

Throughout the Del Rey Manga books, you will find Japanese honorifics left intact in the translations. For those not familiar with how the Japanese use honorifics and, more important, how they differ from American honorifics, we present this brief overview.

Politeness has always been a critical facet of Japanese culture. Ever since the feudal era, when Japan was a highly stratified society, use of honorifics—which can be defined as polite speech that indicates relationship or status—has played an essential role in the Japanese language. When addressing someone in Japanese, an honorific usually takes the form of a suffix attached to one's name (example: "Asuna-san"), is used as a title at the end of one's name, or appears in place of the name itself (example: "Negi-sensei," or simply "Sensei!").

Honorifics can be expressions of respect or endearment. In the context of manga and anime, honorifics give insight into the nature of the relationship between characters. Many English translations leave out these important honorifics and therefore distort the feel of the original Japanese. Because Japanese honorifics contain nuances that English honorifics lack, it is our policy at Del Rey not to translate them. Here, instead, is a guide to some of the honorifics you may encounter in Del Rey Manga.

-san: This is the most common honorific and is equivalent to Mr., Miss, Ms., or Mrs. It is the all-purpose honorific and can be used in any situation where politeness is required.

-sama: This is one level higher than "-san" and is used to confer great respect.

-dono: This comes from the word "tono," which means "lord." It is an even higher level than "-sama" and confers utmost respect.

-kun: This suffix is used at the end of boys' names to express familiarity or endearment. It is also sometimes used by men among friends, or when addressing someone younger or of a lower station.

-chan: This is used to express endearment, mostly toward girls. It is also used for little boys, pets, and even among lovers. It gives a sense of childish cuteness.

Bozu: This is an informal way to refer to a boy, similar to the English terms "kid" and "squirt."

Sempai/
Senpai: This title suggests that the addressee is one's senior in a group or organization. It is most often used in a school setting, where underclassmen refer to their upperclassmen as "sempai." It can also be used in the workplace, such as when a newer employee addresses an employee who has seniority in the company.

Kohai: This is the opposite of "sempai" and is used toward underclassmen in school or newcomers in the workplace. It connotes that the addressee is of a lower station.

Sensei: Literally meaning "one who has come before," this title is used for teachers, doctors, or masters of any profession or art.

[blank]: This is usually forgotten in these lists, but it is perhaps the most significant difference between Japanese and English. The lack of honorific means that the speaker has permission to address the person in a very intimate way. Usually, only family, spouses, or very close friends have this kind of permission. Known as yobisute, it can be gratifying when someone who has earned the intimacy starts to call one by one's name without an honorific. But when that intimacy hasn't been earned, it can be very insulting.

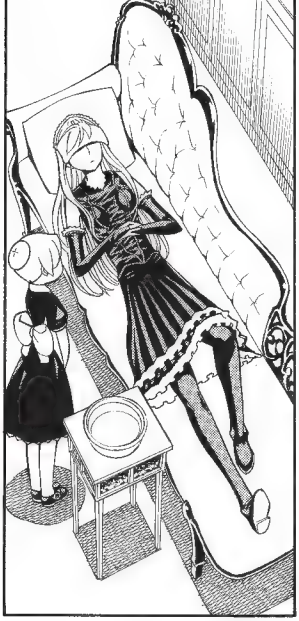
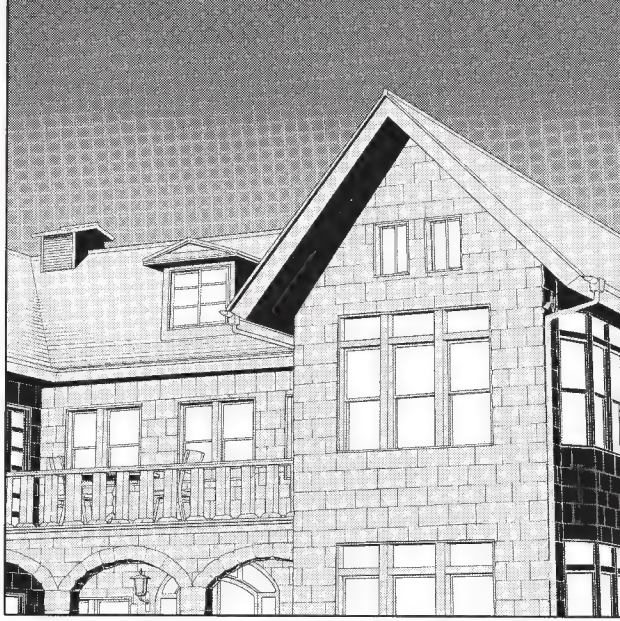
Hey!
Hime!
Heh heh heh...
Bwa ha ha ha!!

TA-DA
So this is...
...the piece Princess Lilianne sent to her sister!
It is nicely composed...
...but in the end, just child's play!
It is far from a masterpiece!!

RRRRRUMMMMBBLLLLLEEEE
However!
I shall refine it into a masterpiece!
With this evil pipe organ...
That transforms evil spirits into pure energy!





An evil pipe organ?
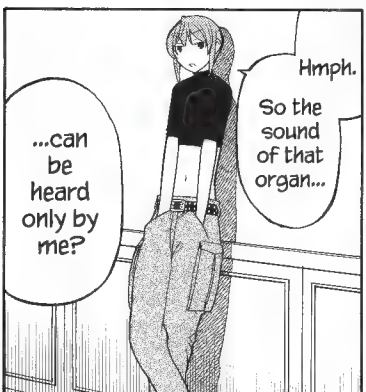
It's a phantom item... that uses technology from a lost civilization.

I found it.
I think this is it, Princess Sherwood.



Hmph.
So the sound of that organ...
...can be heard only by me?

Put simply, it's an attack using sound.
It uses a frequency of about 20,000 hertz, barely the audible range of people.
What's interesting... is that this attack's core concept is a curse.
And that means the energy source of this organ is evil spirits.
And a lot of them, too.
Evil spirits...
...do you think it's connected to the phantom ship and the truck incidents?
No kidding.
Somebody is using evil spirits... to attack Hime.
But I don't understand...
...why did the curse only work on onee-sama?
That is one of the peculiar qualities...
...of this organ.

Exactly.
The sound may be all over the city... but the actual attack is caused by the spirits.

It responds to the memory of the target, right?
Onee-sama!

If they play a piece that everyone knows...
...many people would respond, so the attack will be scattered.

Hmph.
But it also allows me to pinpoint who the attacker is.

But if they choose a piece that only a specific person knows...
...the attack energy will concentrate on that person.
Actually, the choice of music was the real master-stroke here.

There's no point dilly-dallying here.
We just need to follow the sound, right?
You are?
You sound so weak, Princess!
That's right.
I'll lend you Flandre.
I'm counting on you, Riza.

So they're not extinct!
The city was really gone?
Yes. I saw it myself.
ignoring me, eh?
TURN
What are you talking about?
The city was there during the day. It can't just disappear!
You're going to believe Reiri's nonsense!?
I am.
Huh?
Yetis are extinct.
The city is gone.
If I believe both, I can come up with one theory.

ゴゴゴ

...it looks like you two didn't take care of the god...
...that time.
Huh?
Is that even possible?
Riza...
Reiri...
.....
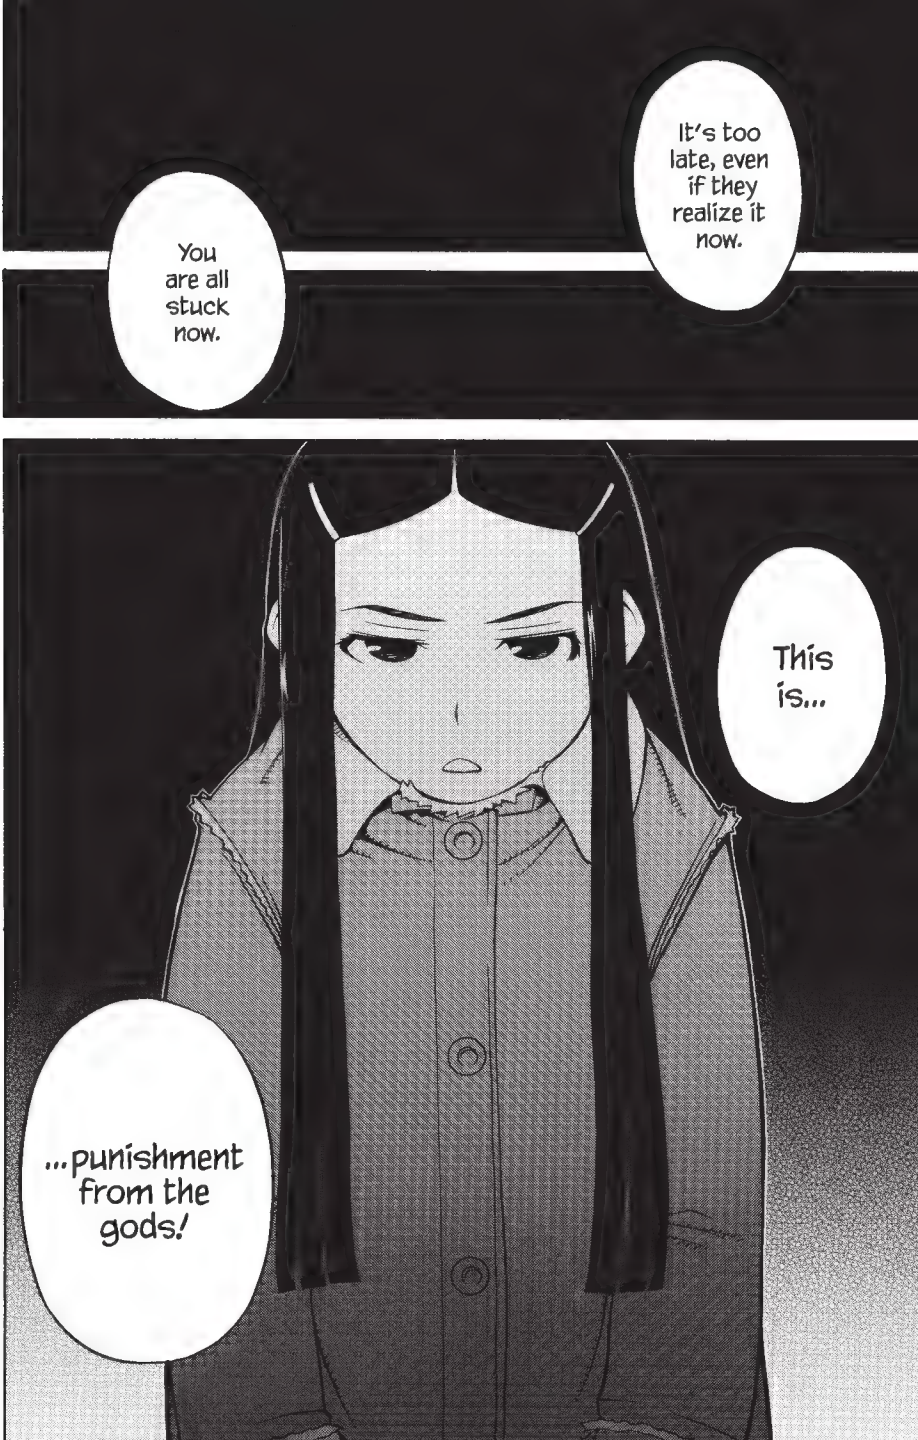
But... she is the only enemy I can think of who can pull this off!
It's only a specula-tion.
Or I can call it a hunch.



It's too late, even if they realize it now.
You are all stuck now.
This is...
...punishment from the gods!

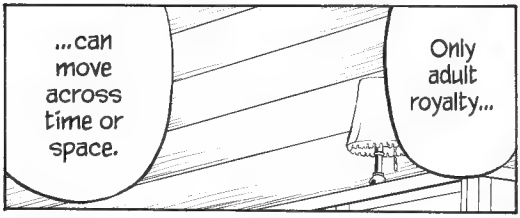
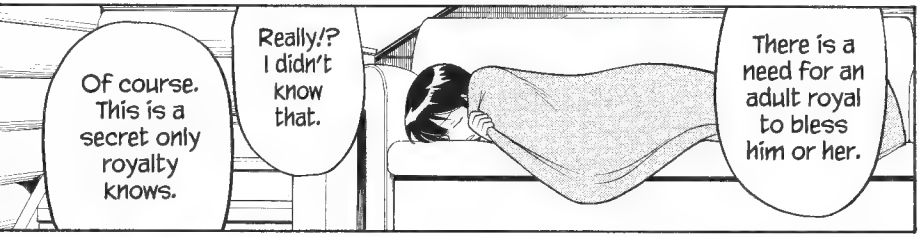
The yetis withdrew once the sun came out.
Did you want to make a move?
It's useless.



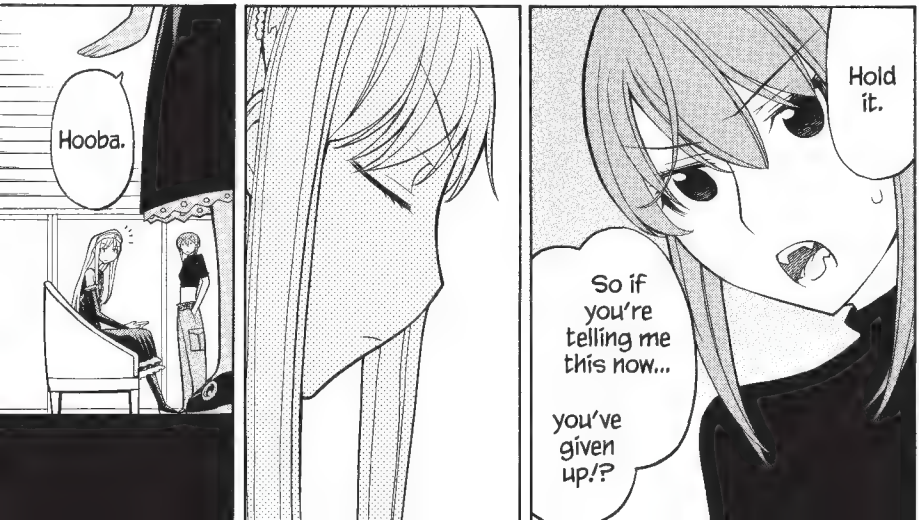
Only adult royalty...
...can move across time or space.

So that means until you become an adult...
...we can't go home? That's several years!

Not quite.
Royals cannot become adults on their own.



There is a need for an adult royal to bless him or her.
Really!? I didn't know that.
Of course. This is a secret only royalty knows.



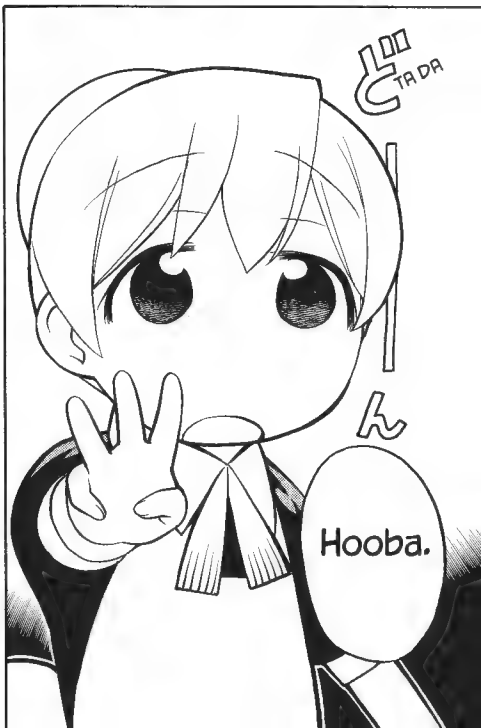
Hooba.
Hold it.
So if you're telling me this now...
you've given up!?

Hooba hooba.
Hooba.

Hooba.

Hooba hooba.
Hooba hooba.

Hooba.



どTA DA

Hooba.

What the heck?
Hey, Hime. What did Flandre say?

Stop stalling and tell us!
.....
She said...
...we can escape in three days.
Seriously!?
She's amazing!
She wasn't just an android with a stupid face!
I don't know.
Huh?
Flandre...
...told me that preparations will take three days, so I shouldn't bother her.
She said this to me.

WHIRRRRR
CRASH

Raaawrrrrr!!
Hiro! Now!!
Push them out!
THUD Rawrr.

CRASH
Ugh.
Rawwr.
Rawr.
SLAP

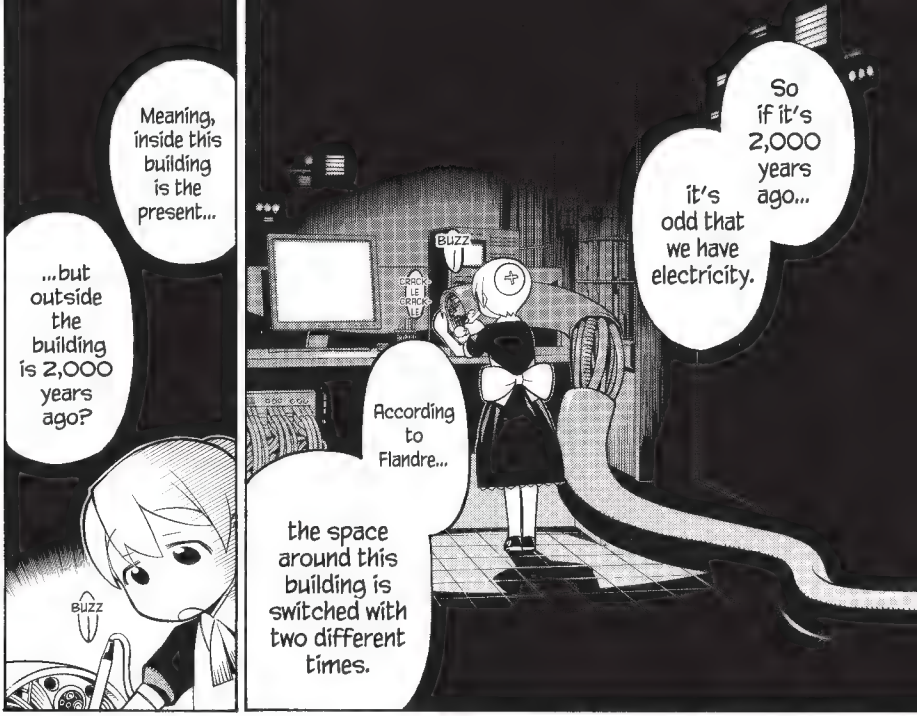
PANT
They keep coming and coming.
Now they're over there!
DASH
We only have oil left for tonight, Princess.
Yeah.
If we can at least use the electricity...
Flandre is using all of the electricity.
We have no choice but to endure.



So if it's 2,000 years ago...
it's odd that we have electricity.
BUZZ
CRACKLE CRACKLE
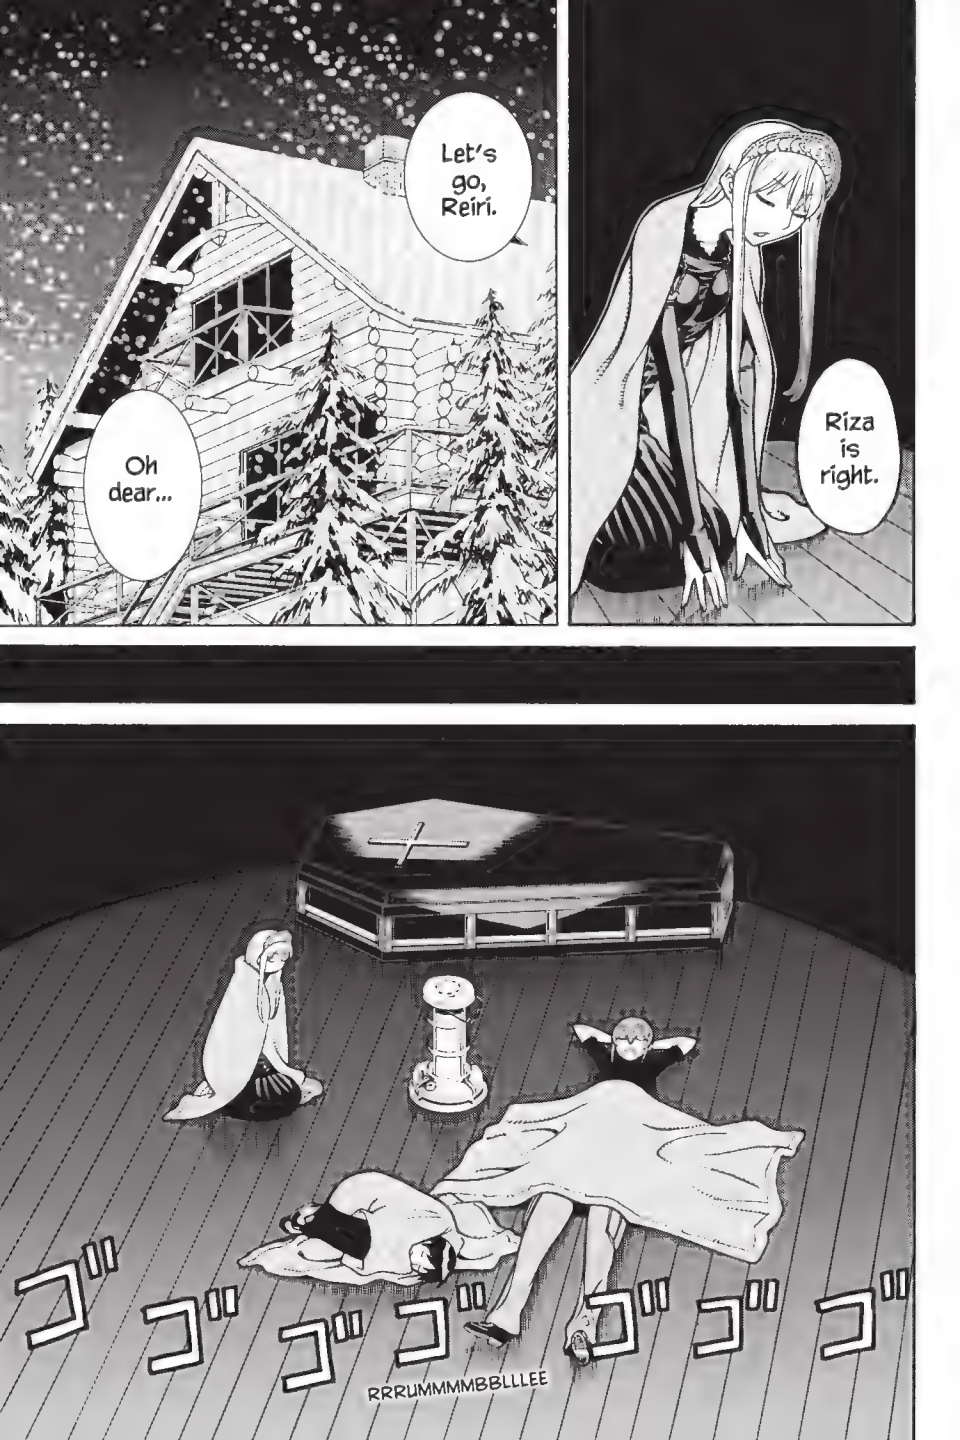
According to Flandre... the space around this building is switched with two different times.
Meaning, inside this building is the present...
...but outside the building is 2,000 years ago?
BUZZ

It's time to switch!
Already?
ZWISH
I'm not a dog.
I don't like cold places.

Stop complaining and go watch the doors!
FIZZLE
It's only 24 more hours.



Let's go, Reiri.
Oh dear...
Riza is right.
ゴ ゴ ゴ ゴ ゴ ゴ ゴ

Finally.
I'm sick of waiting!

Why are you here?
I don't know.

Damn it! So it was her.

Sorry, Hime.
It's our fault!
No problem.
I hold responsibility, too.
I did...

Princess.

WHIRRR
Hmph.
I agree.
God.

. . . .
Well, then.

Oh, it's morning already.
Let's go home now!
Brr.
What are you doing?
The snow is a problem. The sun is reflecting off the snow, and making it worse.

Hooba.
Hooba.
Hooba.
Hey, let's get going.
.....
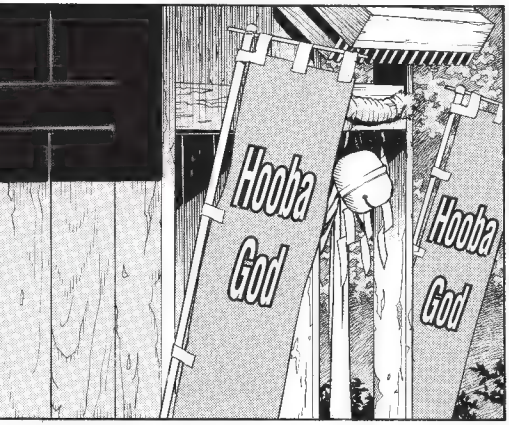
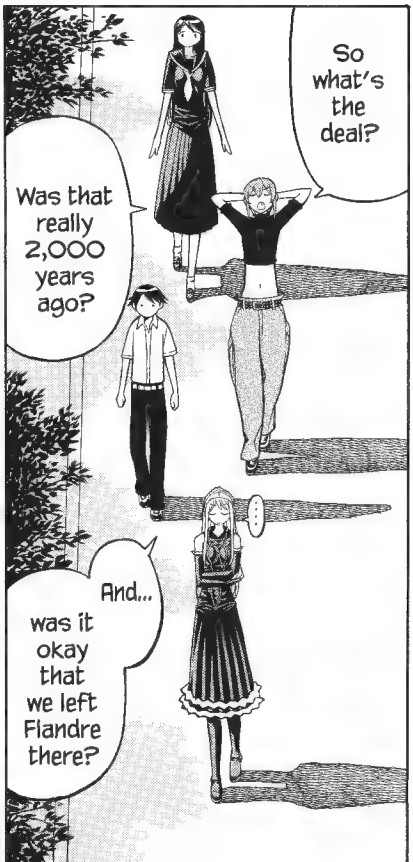
So that was it!

Flandre is going to stay here.
Huh?
We have to fix the break in dimension from that side.
And ...
...she has something she has to do.
Flandre, this is an important order.
You know what to do, right?
Hooba.

Was this shrine here before?
Huh?



Hooba God
Hooba God



So what's the deal?
Was that really 2,000 years ago?
And... was it okay that we left Flandre there?

The data... is, of course, used to escape that world.
That is why we were able to come back.

Flandre has been sleeping since that time for 2,000 years.
And after the 2,000 years, she used her last remaining power... to send the data to the current Flandre.

Huh?
Hold on. So the one who told Flandre was the Flandre from 2,000 years ago, and the one who told that one was also Flandre...

Hiro.
Bring the generator.
We're going to start her up.

Story 31/END

Story 32
BBBLLLEEE
RRRUMMM
So this is the research facility of this Professor?
Emil-sama?
That's right.
Be on guard, Keziah.
Whenever the Professor calls for me...

Story 32: Princess Behemoth

Please come with me.
Flanders-sama, would you please go to the dock in the back?
Hooba.
We've been waiting for you...
...Emil-sama and his subordinates.

WHIRRR

How rude of him...
to call for a royal to come and visit!
Dude, can you shut up for one second, little doggie?
What did you say!?
So what kind of a person is this Professor?

Take off your night vision goggles and say it again...
you night-blind bird of a freak!
Whoa, you're going to discriminate against birds in front of the soon-to-be phoenix?
urgh!
...

...The Professor... is the one who manu-factured Flanders.
.....!?
And he called for us...
TAP
...because he can't come to us.

ドン
TA DA
ドン
It's been a while...
...Professor.

This is the Professor!?
What!?

What a rude man.
Emil, it looks like you don't discipline your subordinates!
Please excuse his disrespect.
And one more thing!
It is not just Flanders, all the androids who serve a royal were created by me!
And another thing!
Even if I had a body and could move, I would've called for you!
He doesn't listen to us, does he?
I'll show you why!

TA DA
What's this?
It's the footage of the camera that faces the ocean from my research facility.

TA DA
What's this?

Hm? Is something there?
Let's enlarge and analyze the image.
PEEP

Let's enlarge and analyze the image.

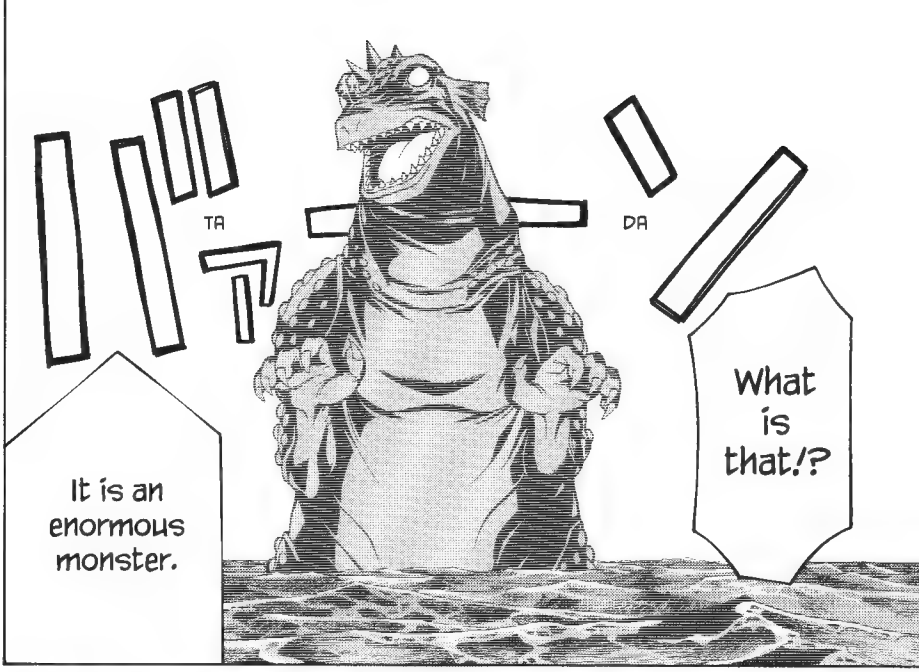
Look at this.
Hm? Is something there?



TA
DA
What is that!?
It is an enormous monster.

Hey, that's odd.
This is neutral territory—a region where we cannot wage battle.
I don't care about the enemy's circumstances!

After calculating its path... it is coming at us at a pace of three miles per hour, really slowly...
...but it is definitely headed to this research laboratory!
It's like a typhoon.

Either way, the danger that is approaching needs to be taken care of.
I see.
That is why you called for us?

Yes.
Only a giant robot can fight this giant monster!
Well, so you guys are just tagalongs for Flanders!
Emil!

ゴゴゴゴゴゴ
RRRUMMMMBBLLLEEE

Grr. How dare he talk to master like this!
GRROWLL
CRACK CRACK
Stop it. He'll never change.
I made all of the androids that serve our royalty!

I am like their father!
It is the duty of a child to come to the parent's aid when the parent is in trouble!
...?

See?
Doesn't it look like it's getting closer?
Hm. True.
If that attacks us, we'll be dead meat!
Let's go home.
Flandre's service or whatever is still not done?
Unfortunately, I need more time!
WHIRR
Ugh.
There you are, you dirty old man!

Will Flandre take time?
You girls are practically inside my body!
This research facility and I are completely assimilated.
Dirty old man? How lame.
You're grossing me out, creep!
I'm going to give her a full service this time!
You need to take care of her more!
I don't know what you did to make her like that.
Of course! She is worn and torn as if she were out in the wind and snow for a thousand years.
So you can stay here with ease!
...it's already taken care of.
And regarding the monster...

Flan-chan is in the hospital!
Did you hear, Reiri-chan?
So miss, Hiro, and Riza-chan all left to go with her,
and we're the only ones left here.
I'm worried about her.

Oh, you can't speak yet?
DASH
Hey Riza, Vorg's daughter!
Hm?
Wait a minute.
If you're here...
Keziah.
You were here, too?
That rotten brain.
He didn't tell us that you all were here, too!

I'm looking for the wizard that made a deal with her regarding her legs.
It's one that uses evil spirits.
Do you know of any?
I see.
So the mermaid's curse is still not lifted.
She's so small. How sad.
What!?
He was a blood warrior of the first princess.
Yeah. But he is probably dead now.
Kiniski, the werewolf killer!?
It seems that it was teaming up with Kiniski, but I didn't see him.
Oh, I know evil spirits, but not a wizard.
.....
He was a really rare vampire blood warrior.
He wouldn't admit it, but I can tell by his scent.

Riza, I heard...
...that you are in this battle to avenge Vorg's son, Robo's death.
Is that true?
Yeah.
If your master is my enemy...
...I will kill him!
Emil-sama prefers the battle between two royals.
He would never send someone to deliberately kill his sibling.
Hey, look at that!
We'll see about that.

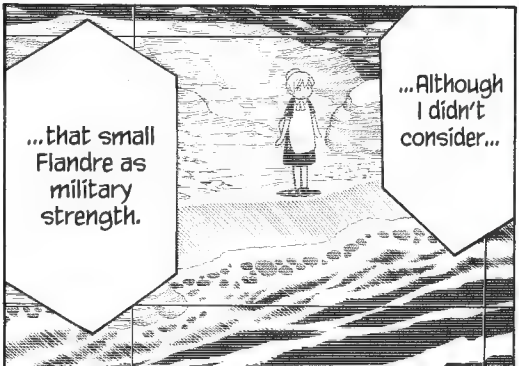
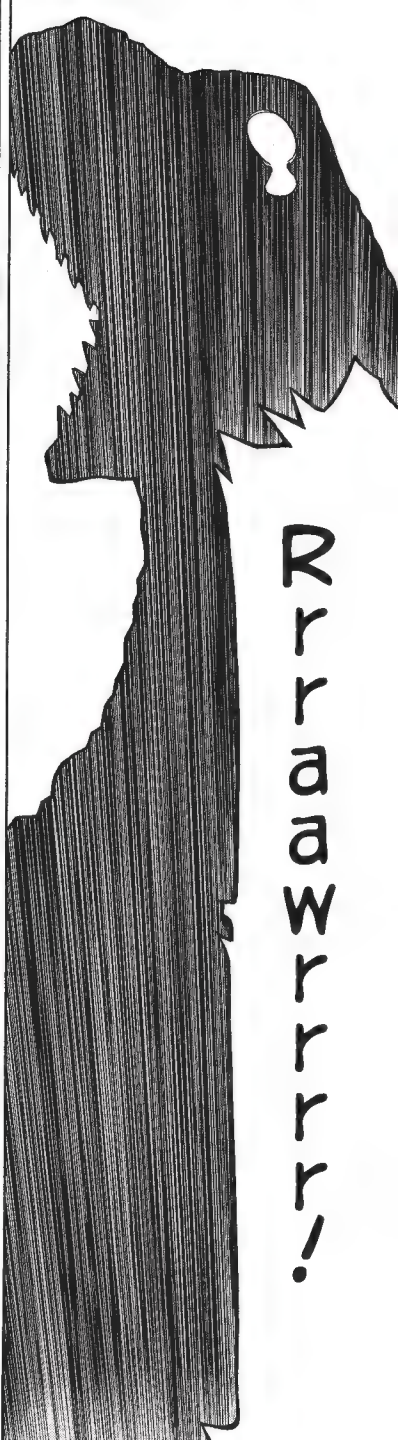
No matter how big a monster is, it hurts when its foot is attacked!
Anyhow, the danger has passed!
Huh?
We have won!



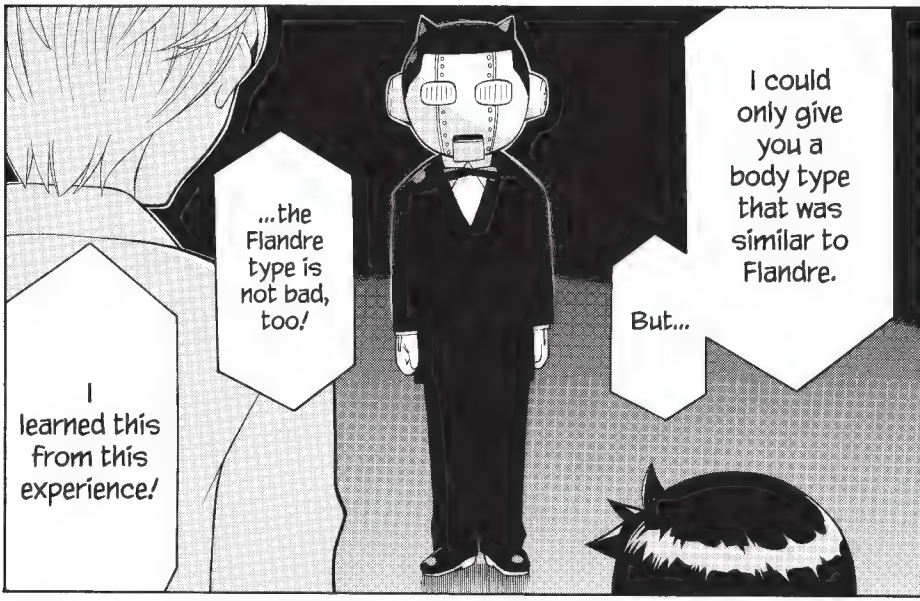
...Although I didn't consider...
...that small Flandre as military strength.



Rrraawrrrrr!

But she...
...is a loving android!
Honestly, my opinion of Flandre...
...was not that high, that her only redeeming feature was that she was small.
Stop eavesdropping, you dirty old man!
Think about it.
And you, the werewolf's daughter, revenge is irrational. I can't admire that.
You're leaving without seeing your brother?
Yes.
I wish you the best, Professor.
Then, let's go home...
...Flandre.

Flanders' service is going to take time.
Fortunately, his memory stock was undamaged.
So inside, it is still your loyal servant, Flanders.



I could only give you a body type that was similar to Flandre.
But...
...the Flandre type is not bad, too!
I learned this from this experience!

What is she saying?
Hey!
I don't mind.
Just do as you wish!
She doesn't know... where the break in the dimension is.
She didn't receive the information on where it was.
She can't.
Then she should just try it at random...
Are you serious?

The device is connected to Flandre... and that one time is going to break a part of her internal combustion.
She can only irradiate the tachyon pulse... once.

PSHOO
I'm going to stop your activity.
From now on you're going to become a timed data transmission device.
It's time to say goodbye, Flandre.
Hooba.
I see. Thanks, Flandre.
Our attempt failed.
But we were able to determine the location of the break.
I know that in the next 2,000 years later...
...they will escape this loop of time!
